

Sinclair Broadcasting's blatant partisan action to make their stations air an anti-Kerry documentary is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

The FCC needs to be more proactive to the citizen and less to the big media, particularly in light of the ownership of the public airwaves by the citizens, and the simplistic and unrealistic requirements to object to license renewal by postcard.

Thank You